

BLACK AND WHITE CONTRAST TEST CHART

TRANSPARENCY

The test chart shows two picture halves in neutral gray and black. Gray has a remission (transmission) of 60% and black approx. 1.5%. The contrast range of both picture halves is 40:1 and thus corresponds to the contrast range which is recommended for television recording.