

LENS BREATHING TEST CHART 16:9

REFLECTANCE

The TE236 is designed to measure lens breathing. This means a change of the focal length (the reproduction scale of the scene) of the lens just by changing the focus point. It contains three white vertical stripes on a black background.